SHELTON SINGERS SING

Mark Thursday, December 10, on your calendar as the night the Shelton Singers present their Christmas concert at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. The program, the Singers' largest and most elaborate production to date, will feature harpist Kathy Newman from Le Grange Georgia as well as faculty members from the University of Alabama Music Department.

The choral program will consist of three chorals from the Bach Christmas Oratorio, Brother James' Air, and the complete Saint Saens Christmas Oratorio. In addition to the choir, Mrs. Syble Coats will perform a chamber work by Corelli with Mrs. Bernice Holland.

Featured as soloists in the Saint Saens Christmas Oratorio are four University of Alabama music faculty members, Ed White, Karen White, Sarah Rideout Jones and Jerry Benser. Ms. Newman will be the featured harpist during the oratorio. Mrs. Coats will serve as the accompanist and Everett McCrovey will direct the Shelton Singers.

SHELTON FACULTY

Ms. Nancy Fisher, Ms. Hazel Evans and Mrs. Ruby Miller spoke at the Alabama Council of Teachers of Mathematics, District III Fall Conference, at the University of Alabama on Sat., November 14.

KEENUM TO SPEAK

Larry Keenum, director of Chapter Development for the University of Alabama Alumni Association, will be the guest speaker for the January meeting of the Shelton State Alumni Association on January 27, 1982.

Keenum will speak to the alumni group on establishing an alumni association and setting up a constitution and by-laws.

Since this will be the group's first outside speaker, we hope to have an especially large group.

The meeting will be at 7:30p.m. in the auditorium. Coffee and do-nuts will be served so try to attend.

Anyone who has attended Shelton State for at least one quarter is eligible for membership in the Shelton Alumni Association.

OPERATION SANTA CLAUS

Now is the Christmas season and the best part of the holiday season is doing something for others.

Leave an unwrapped gift in the Christmas box in front of Dean Umphrey's office. Operation Santa Claus sponsored by the Mental Health Association of Tuscaloosa will make sure it reaches the patients in Tuscaloosa mental hospitals.

MIX A CUP OF CHRISTMAS CHEER

Give your favorite holiday recipes to the Courier by December 9th so it will be included in the recipe section of the Christmas issue scheduled to come out before the holidays.

"TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS"

December 10th: Shelton Singers Christmas Concert. Reception following sponsored by the Student Life Committee. Will be held in the auditorium.

December 14th: Christmas Parade. 6:30 p.m., Downtown. Shelton State float sponsored by Student Life Committee.

December 18th: Christmas Holidays begin. HAVE A MERRY!!!!!!

ARMY ROTC CAMP

The U.S. Army will conduct a 6-week basic ROTC camp at Fort Knox, Kentucky, beginning in May 1982. These camps are designed for college students who were unable to take Army ROTC courses during their first two years of college.

Transportation is provided free of charge as well as meals and lodging. Additionally each student is paid $559 and is eligible to receive six semester hours of academic credit at the University of Alabama.

If you are interested in finding out more about the program, contact Dean Howington's office.

The Sonic Drive-In now gives a 25% student discount on all food items purchased. This does NOT include drinks and cigarettes.

BASKET CASES

Would you like a holiday basket of goodies from Swiss Colony for only a $.50 donation? Some lucky person will and it could be you!

Phi Theta Kappa is raffling off this basket to raise money for its scholarship fund. The drawing will be December 15 so hurry and get your ticket(s) from any PTK member or Ms Grimes in the library.

Ho! Ho! Ho! Don't forget Operation Santa Claus!!!!!!

ACT CARD PICTURES

Tuesday, December 8, is the last day for pictures of Act cards to be made or for new Act cards. Cards will be made outside Dean Lee's office until 8 p.m. Monday night.

Be sure and put your parking decal on your car. This card entitles you to park in the University of Alabama's red student parking zone.

If you need extra decals, be sure and come by Dean Lee's office.

HOLIDAY INTERIM COURSES

Add a little spice to your life during Christmas vacation. Take a Christmas holiday interim course.

Cultural Anthropology, First Aid and Safety, and General Psychology will be taught during this period.

Tuesday, December 8, is the last day to register for the interim courses.

If a student is already taking a full load, there is no charge for the interim course.

HISTORICAL FOLK FESTIVAL

Shelton State will celebrate Heritage Week this year with a Historical Folk Festival at the college on Wednesday, April 9th. Events for the day include folk art, folk music, folk medicine, folk architecture, a film festival, speakers and entertainment.

If you are interested in working on this committee, contact Dean Umphrey.
